Pam Haan, Librarian I, was introduced to the Board as a recent hire for the library in June. Pam is recently retired from teaching and works part time for HML.

Director's Report:

- The library hosted various programs and made significant operational progress in August 2025, including a popular scavenger hunt and preparations for fall programming, alongside staff changes and facility improvements.
  - Successful community engagement event: The Lucky Duck Scavenger Hunt was held from August 11-16, attracting 137 participants who received stickers for finding hidden ducks. The NEA Big Read Lakeshore program distributed all 25 free copies of each selected book title by the end of August.
  - Staff updates and development: A new part-time library page started on August 2, and a seasonal staff member left for college on August 9. Thirteen out of twenty staff attended a Staff Development Day at Renew Therapeutic Riding Center on August 18, during which the library was closed to the public.
  - Facility and operational improvements: The elevator resumed operation on August 19 after repairs. Efforts to clear basement storage for BPW staff training space began, and a consortium-wide collection inventory reached 75% completion, expected to finish by October 2025.
- Strategic goals progress: The library is preparing for a late September launch of a redesigned website with staff training underway. Acoustic treatment options are being explored but are currently on hold. Marketing campaigns on Facebook reached over 35,000 accounts in August to raise public awareness of library services.
